The Birmingham Region is full of many top-flight law firms and the lawyers who populate them. As we do in other areas of editorial endeavor, Birmingham magazine conducted a review through a nomination process to discover which attorneys were held in highest regard by their peers. More than 750 attorneys responded to our request to nominate lawyers that they felt represented the top tier of their profession. The nominations were tabulated, vetted and the top vote-getters in various categories are presented here. This editorial effort by Birmingham magazine has no affiliation with Best Lawyers in America™ or any other peer review process.
