LAW: "We are all business, but far from business as usual. We believe 'Legal Service' should mean just that, and that an investment in legal counsel should yield more than it costs." BUSINESS PHILOSOPHY: "Our clients enjoy the personal service, flexibility and creativity of a small firm with the sophistication, experience and technology driven resources found in the largest firms. We provide comprehensive legal services for our business clients and have litigated complex business and financial cases across the nation." LANDMARK CASES: Played a role in prosecuting or defending every major securities class action in Alabama during recent years. Currently serving as Liaison Counsel for institutional investors in HealthSouth bond litigation.

VOLUNTEERISM: Members are actively involved in local bar association and other community organizations. Members are also frequent guest speakers/lecturers at seminars for both the legal and non-legal community.
